Executive Vice President/Chief Medical Officer appointed by Board of Directors August 1996 – December 31, 2010, Metro Health Hospital, Grand Rapids, MI.

Responsible for overseeing the quality, utilization and risk management activities of all physician related entities. Restructured quality, utilization, risk management, and health information departments into an integrated multidisciplinary team that drove patient quality and safety activities throughout the institution achieving the following results:

- Through a TEAM approach achieved three consecutive years of nationally recognized Top 100 hospital designation (2006, 2007, and 2008).
- Involved physician leadership in the achievement of top 1% of all hospitals in Core Measures for pneumonia, myocardial infarction and congestive heart failure in 2005 and 2006.
- Acknowledged as “Best of the Best” by the Institute for Healthcare Improvement for medication safety efforts, at 2004 annual national meeting.
- Medication safety practices recognized in national publications – US News & World Report & Outpatient Surgery.
- Named in the top 5 percent of hospitals in the country for implementation of safety practices in inpatient care. Published on the nationally respected Leapfrog Group web site (www.leapfroggroup.org).
- Recipient of 2005 VHA (Voluntary Hospitals of America) Leadership Award for clinical excellence in the care of patients with heart attacks and heart failure.
- First community hospital in Michigan to receive permission to provide emergent angioplasty for impending myocardial infarction patients, 2004.

- 2009 Health Stream Research Awards for patient safety practices, best patient experience, inpatient, outpatient, and emergency department. Presented with 7 awards, 4 more than any other hospital!
- Peer Review Development: Worked closely with Chief of Staff and medical staff leadership to build a culture of safety throughout all the organization that led to a non-punitive approach to reporting medical errors. Through collaborating with the Institute for Healthcare Improvement and Vanderbilt University we were able to gain medical staff support and approval for a Full Disclosure Policy for Medical Errors and a Non-Punitive Reporting Policy which has led us to benchmark best practices in respect to patient safety, clinical accountability, and team communication.
- Medical Education: Responsible for the strategic development of the Medical Education Program which includes medical students, 9 residency programs and a fellowship program (totaling 108 trainees) affiliated with Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine Statewide Campus System. Responsible for oversight of the ambulatory primary care and specialty clinics. Developed Fellowship programs in sports medicine and interventional cardiology that continues to support profitable service lines.
- Medical Staff Development: Authored the first board approved Medical Staff Development plan in 1996 that implemented the development of community “Plazas” that positioned outpatient testing and primary care with visiting specialists in strategic community sites. Today, Metro Enterprises has over eighty providers in thirteen sites. Chaired the Physician Leadership Committee for 14 years that met biweekly for the purpose of recruitment and retention of medical staff and allied health providers. In an eight year period of time this strategic committee assisted the institution in doubling the size of the medical staff to the current 538 members. Developed the Legacy of Leaders gala, an annual medical staff event that honored prior medical staff leaders and introduced new members to the medical staff while educating the new physician leaders on the culture of caring at Metro Health.
- Practice Development: Board member, Metro Health Enterprise, a multispecialty group practice owned by the hospital. Initiated the formation and development in 1996 of a not for profit hospital owned ambulatory group practice sites with a production based incentive program for clinicians. Enterprises has grown into thirteen sites and over ninety clinicians in the Grand Rapids area.
- Hospitalist Program: Led the development of a “hybrid” hospitalist model that enabled the continued recruitment of hospitalists and ambulatory internal medicine physicians to our medical staff. Effectively managed three disparate physician practices into a cohesive benchmark hospitalist practice that was a major factor in the institution achieving three consecutive Top 100 Hospital designations.

- Clinical Research: Developed a ROI for a formal department of Clinical Research that would partner with VanAndel Research Institute, University of Michigan, and CLINXUS to enhance our cardiovascular, oncology and orthopedic product lines. Enacted the strategic plan within the timetables set for the development, staffing and partnering opportunities as identified in the ROI.
- Assisted the Chief Information Officer in the ROI for an electronic medical record for the health system. Developed strategies to engage physicians in the Epic EMR system and assisted in recruitment of a CMIO. A fully implemented inpatient EMR with order entry was successfully operational within six months from the go live date (October 2009). Metro Health is now at stage 6/7 on the implementation of a system wide EMR (less than 5% of all hospitals).
- Fund/Friend Raising: Assisted in the development of Metropolitan Foundation. Actively engaged physicians and co-chaired the medical staff campaign for donations to the Metro Health new hospital complex. Achieved a 79% participation level from the active medical staff!!! Community activism in fund raising for the underserved through multiple organizations such as Catholic Human Development Organization, YMCA, and United Way.

- Developed more diverse programs in China market with increasing numbers of individual professionals and workshops coming to MSU (China program became the primary revenue source)
- Designed and implemented many different types of professional workshops for judges, doctors, educators, government employees, scientists, and business managers
- Advised to new leaderships during this period (a director and an interim director)

- Advised visiting professionals, scholars, and Chinese international students

Program Coordinator (1999-2010)

- Recruited professionals from China to VIPP
- Established and executed many short-term professional workshops for China market since 1998, including higher education administration, student affairs, faculty development, business, law, natural science, and agricultural science (responsibilities included business negotiation, program design, curriculum development, and budget planning)
- Established a middle school summer program, hosting more than 200 middle school students during 2005-2007 (Many became MSU undergraduate students in later years.)
- Established summer short-term programs for college students from China since 2005
- Established a strategic partnership with the Dongfang Center for International Exchange of China Scholarship Council (CSC)
- Established the Global Academic Achievement Program (GAAP) to recruit pre-college students to MSU for English language training (All students were admitted by MSU after completing the GAAP program)
- Advised visiting professionals, scholars, and Chinese international students

UM Consulting, LLC (Nov.1999-Feb. 2002)

Regional Manager of Metro Detroit (part-time)

- Promoted various IT training programs in Detroit and Cleveland market
- Coordinated IT consultants on projects with companies in Metro Detroit
- Hired course instructors for training programs at the Metro Detroit location

Sichuan University (August 1991-June 1995)

Lecturer and Assistant to the Director of Foreign Language Department

- Teaching three undergraduate courses and two courses for evening college
- Coordinating faculty meetings and academic affairs in the department

CURRICULUM VITA

René C. Hinojosa, Ph.D.

Professor Emeritus, Urban and Regional Planning
School of Planning, Design and Construction
Adjunct Professor and Research Director
Institute for Global Health, Michigan State University, U.S.A.

Address: 909 Fee Rd., Room B320 West Fee Hall
College of Osteopathic Medicine, Michigan State University
East Lansing, Michigan 48824
Phone: (517) 884-3790, E-mail: hinojosa@msu.edu

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Quantitative techniques in planning, research methods and models for urban and regional analysis, research and survey design for health and medical studies, transportation planning, regional economic studies, international development, program and project evaluation, organization of education abroad courses.

EDUCATION

Ph.D. in Urban and Regional Planning, 1979. University of Washington, Seattle, USA. Areas of specialization: methods of regional analysis, evaluation in planning, transportation.

M.S. in Civil Engineering, 1970. University of Washington, Seattle, USA. Areas of specialization: structures, reinforced concrete, soils and foundation engineering.

Civil Engineer, 1967. Technical University of Oruro, Bolivia.

FELLOWSHIPS AND AWARDS

Fulbright Senior Scholar. Universidad Privada Boliviana, Cochabamba, Bolivia, 2017-2018.

Visiting Scholar and Research Fellow. Department of Architecture, Science University of Tokyo, Japan, 1992.

Fulbright Senior Scholar. National University, Bogota and Medellin, Colombia, 1984.

UNESCO Fellowship. International Course in Structural and Construction Engineering, Federal University of Rio de Janeiro, COPPE, and University of Sao Paulo, Brazil, 1971.

Latin American Scholarship Program American Universities, Civil Engineering, University of Washington, Seattle, 1968-70.

ACADEMIC ASSIGNMENTS

Professor Emeritus 2014 to present; Professor 1994-2014; Associate Professor 1985-1993; Assistant Professor 1979-1984, School of Planning, Design and Construction, Michigan State University. Teaching undergraduate and graduate courses in quantitative methods, research methodology, data analysis and computer applications for planners, transportation planning, urban form and structure, planning process, housing in developing societies, comparative international planning, economic geography, study abroad courses in several countries. Supervision of theses and dissertations.

Research Director, Institute for Global Health, College of Osteopathic Medicine, Michigan State University, 2021 to present.

Adjunct Professor, Institute for Global Health, Michigan State University, 2014 to present.
Adjunct Professor, Department of Geography 2001.

Program Director, Education Abroad Programs, 1992 to present. Organize, teach and lead several programs in Latin America, Europe and Asia. Michigan State University.

Fulbright Senior Scholar, 2017-2018. Nine-month award for lecturing/research on urban transportation planning and traffic forecasting computer modeling, Universidad Privada Boliviana, Bolivia. Presentations at public universities and professional societies.

Interim Director, August 1999-2001, Julian Samora Research Institute, Michigan State University. JSRI is the premier Chicano/Latino research center in the Midwest. While at the Institute several projects were initiated including a migrant farm worker social capital study, analysis and dissemination of Latino population demographics, monitoring Latino youth and children's welfare status.

Chairperson, 1994-August 1999, Department of Geography, Michigan State University. The Department of Geography was a large unit with seven degree-programs in the disciplines of geography, urban and regional planning, and landscape architecture. It also included MSU's Basic Science and Remote Sensing Initiative, a research program I initiated with a large portfolio of sponsored grants.

Visiting Scholar, 1992. Department of Architecture, Science University of Tokyo, Japan. Lecturing undergraduate and graduate architecture classes, acting as consultant in ongoing research projects of the Department of Architecture.

Instructor, 1990. Urban Planning Training Program, USAID grant (through Wilbur Smith Associates) to train Egyptian planners in various areas: Project Organization and Management, Cost-Benefit Analysis, Computer Applications in Planning. Urban Planning Program, Michigan State University.

Instructor, 1989. International Course on Spatial Analysis sponsored by the Panamerican Institute of Geography and History and the University of Panama, Panama, July - August.

Fulbright Senior Lecturer, 1984. Three-month grant award for lecturing on spatial planning and regional development, National University, Bogota and Medellin, Colombia.

Instructor, 1979. Urban and Regional Modeling Seminar, General Telephone Company of the Northwest, July 23-27, University of Washington, Seattle.

Predocctoral Lecturer and Teaching Associate, 1974-78. Department of Architecture, University of Washington, Seattle. Teaching a sequence of courses in structural engineering.

Professor, 1970-72. Technical University of Oruro, Bolivia. Teaching structural engineering at junior and senior levels, supervision of theses.

RESEARCH ACTIVITY, GRANTS, AND PROFESSIONAL ASSIGNMENTS

Principal Investigator, 2021-22. "Anthropometric Indicators For Children Living in Plantation Communities, Dominican Republic," project with initial funds from the Education Abroad Office, Michigan State University, with A. Shahed, A. Moeller and D. Eblovi.

Principal Investigator, 2022. "Religious Beliefs and Attitudes Toward Vaccination in Plantation Communities, Dominican Republic," A project with D. Stowe, A. Shahed, and P. Horner.

Referee International Research Competition, 2018. Manuscript review and research advising, Sociedad de Estudios Urbanos y Regionales, Universidad Privada Boliviana, Bolivia.

Grant Award for MSU Institute for Global Health, Marlene M. Johnson Innovation Challenge for U.S.-Cuba, Caribbean, and Central America, with Partners of the Americas, 2017-2018.

Journal Referee, 2011. Manuscript reviewer, Journal of Planning Education and Research, Weiping Wu, Editor.

Principal Investigator, 2003-04. "New Settlements and Old Communities: A Demographic Analysis of Latinos in Selected Metropolitan Areas of Michigan," project funded by Annie E. Case Foundation, in collaboration with the University of Notre Dame.

Principal Investigator, 2002. "Monitoring the Condition of Latino Children and Families," project funded by A.E. Case foundation, in collaboration with the University of Notre Dame.

Principal Investigator, 2001. "GIS Mapping of Migrant Farmworker Data for Michigan, Minnesota, and Wisconsin," funded by Marshfield Medical Research and Educational Foundation."

Co-principal Investigator. "MSU Center of Excellence in applications of remote sensing to regional and global integrated environmental assessment." NASA grant award to improve and expand MSU's capacity for research and education, 1997-1999.

Principal Investigator. "GIS and map digitizing services for Michigan DNR." Internship program for geography students, a multiyear contract coordinated by the Department of Geography.

Journal Referee, 1997. Manuscript reviewer for Journal of the American Planning Association, and Environment and Planning A.

Investigator. "Hypermap learning environment: resource for improving the understanding of urban landscapes." Joint project with the University of Maryland, Derek Thompson co-principal investigator, 1996-98, with Judy Olson.

Co-principal Investigator. Developing a Planning and Evaluation Information System for Michigan Local Governments. Project funded by the Kellogg Foundation/ MSU Life-Long Education, 1990-1993, with Urban and Regional Planning faculty.

Journal Referee, 1992. Manuscript reviewer, Journal of Planning Education and Research, C.E. Connerly and B.S. Stiftel, Editors.

Research Proposal Reviewer, Since 1980. Several occasions, including reviews for the National Science Foundation, Geography and Regional Science Program, and MSU's Research Initiation Grant program.

Principal Investigator, 1990-91. "Building global planning capabilities for the 21st century," curriculum development project funded by the Michigan State University Faculty Development Fund, with T. Lyons and F. Zinn.

Journal Referee, 1989. Manuscript review, Journal of the American Planning Association, P. D. Salins, Editor.

Journal Referee, 1988. Manuscript review for Urban Geography, James O. Wheeler, Editor.

Principal Investigator, 1987. Study of patterns of municipal expenditures in Michigan. Funded by the Center for Redevelopment of Industrialized States, Michigan State University.

Project Leader, 1986-89. University linkage program funded by the U.S. Information Agency to develop collaborative research projects between the University of Panama and Michigan State University, competitive grant with MSU Latin American & Caribbean Studies Center.

Co-director, 1985. Design and implementation of a database management system for the Policy Reform Project of the U.S. Agency for International Development and the Government of Bolivia (through R.R. Nathan Associates). The project created an improved information system for economic policy formulation, funded by USAID.

Principal Investigator, 1984. Study of the distribution of property tax abatements in Michigan, and other ongoing projects about methods of analysis in economic development, funded by the Center for Redevelopment of Industrialized States, Michigan State University.

Co-director, 1983. Evaluation study of the Employment Planning and Generation project of the Government of Panama and the U.S. Agency for International Development to solve the problem of widespread urban unemployment in Panama, funded by USAID.

Co-director, 1983. Evaluation research to assess the Rural Growth and Service Centers project in Panama. Project implemented by the Government of Panama and the U.S. Agency for International Development to stimulate growth and development in rural areas of Panama, funded by USAID.

Editorial Board Member, 1983-86. Review of manuscripts for the Journal of Planning Education and Research.

Principal Investigator, 1982. Course and curriculum design project funded by the Center for Advanced Study of International Development, Michigan State University, to revise, update and expand a graduate course in international development planning. It included a survey of urban and regional planning programs in North America.

Principal Investigator, 1981-82, "Identification of physical development factors and impacts of sand and gravel sites from remotely sensed imagery," and "Land Use/ Land Cover Change Detection." Project funded through NASA's grant to the MSU Center for Remote Sensing, with D. Brunnschweiler, A. Bauer and M. Boylan.

Principal Investigator, 1980-81, "Transportation energy conservation and community land use decision making in Michigan." Project funded by the All-University Research Initiation Grant Program of Michigan State University, and the Michigan Energy Administration, competitive grant with S. Orlick.

Co-principal Investigator, 1980-81, "Series I and II barrier dune land use change analysis," study completed for the Michigan Department of Natural Resources by the MSU Center for Remote Sensing, with William Enslin.

Journal Referee, 1980-81. Reviewed manuscripts for International Regional Science Review, A. Isserman, Editor.

Researcher, 1977, Remote Sensing Applications Laboratory, University of Washington, Seattle. Study of remote sensing information needs and equipment requirements for an earth resources data management facility. Pacific Northwest Land Resources Inventory Demonstration Project sponsored by NASA-Ames, the USGS, and state and local government agencies in Idaho, Oregon and Washington.

Cartographer-Land Use Planner, 1975. Study for the Federal Power Commission, "Alternative sites for LNG facilities in the Cook Inlet/Kenai peninsula, Alaska area," by the Oceanographic Institute of Washington and the University of Washington.

Curator, 1975, Remote Sensing Applications Laboratory, University of Washington. Responsible for organizing equipment and activities for the application of remotely sensed imagery in land use planning.

Consulting Engineer, 1974-75, Robert Albrecht, Consulting Engineer, Seattle. Assisted in two projects for the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration: "Vessel moorage alternatives study for NOAA Sand Point facility" and "Comparative site study for the consolidation of NOAA Seattle area operations."

Structural Engineer, 1974, Robert Albrecht, Consulting Engineer, Seattle. Structural engineering work for several buildings in the Seattle area.

Field Inspector, 1973, Pacific Architects and Engineers, Bellevue, Washington. Head inspector of construction quality control of a U.S. Post Office Bulk Mail Facility, and other projects.

Civil Engineer, 1969, Shannon and Wilson, Inc., Soil and Foundation Engineers, Seattle. Design of foundations, land slide analysis, field inspection, soil exploration.

EDUCATION*Michigan State University

Kinesiology (PsychoSocial Aspects)

PhD Candidate

Expected Completion Spring 2022

My research interest is focused on creating optimal health in the physical/mental/emotional/spiritual body through a greater understanding of how energy flows through the collective bodies. One can create a higher state of physical/mental/emotional/spiritual wellness through training in mindfulness, meditation, rigorous physical exercise using techniques that bring forth a balanced state. I am especially interested in coaching and advocacy work that supports social, emotional development through teaching self-regulation of the body, improving mental health. Working with children ages 3-19, I convey these tools through a positive youth development curriculum, emphasizing healthy exercise and nutrition behaviors, a connection to nature, self-regulation of mind/body/spirit, mindfulness, meditation, breathwork, tapping into the flow of biofield energy to create optimal health, all key to empowering youth with tools for health and well-being.
